"Edwin Forrest," the valuable stallion belonging to Mr. Ashley Clark, died last Saturday morning. The horse had been sick for several days and was almost well when, in attempting to rise, it ruptured a blood vessel and died soon after. This stallion was awarded the 1st premium at the Stock Show held in St. Genevieve last fall.

A Grand Harvest Feast will be given near the Weingarten Church on Saturday next, September 27th, to which all are cordially invited to attend. The managers of the Feast are making grand preparations and all who attend will enjoy a pleasant day. In case of rain the Feast will be postponed to Monday, September 28th.

Death of Mrs. John Monroe.

DIED, at Silica, Mo., on Friday, September 12, 1890, Mrs. Constance Monroe, aged twenty-six years and nine months.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. John Detchemendy, one of the oldest and most respected farmers of Staabtown. Upon arriving at maturity years she was united in marriage with Mr. James Monroe, now a prosperous merchant and land dealer at Silica.

Upon taking up her residence in the above named locality the people were not slow in perceiving that the same generous disposition which had always been prominent in her as a young girl, was still as true and as true as ever.

The spirit of the true Christian wife, mother and neighbor manifested itself in every walk of her life and though she is dead to the world, still in sincerest sympathy with the sorrowing husband and relatives we can say that:

"While her absence they deplore,
For themselves they weep,
In vain they seek to cheer her,
And in vain they lift their eyes,
She is not dead, she could not die."

The people of Silica extend to the bereaved husband and family their sincere sympathy with the consolation that their loss here is but Heaven's gain above.

Death of Mr. John Haurie.

DIED, at his residence in this city, on Friday, September 13, 1890, at 4 o'clock P. M., of flux, Mr. John Haurie, aged 56 years.

Mr. Haurie came to America from Germany with his parents when he was but fourteen years of age and settled in St. Louis. His parents died shortly after arriving in this country.

The deceased who had been ill for about three weeks, leaves a wife and two daughters to mourn his death. Mr. Haurie worked at the Cone Mill in this city for fifteen years and was an honorable man, respected by all who knew him.

He was interred in the Valley Spring Catholic Cemetery on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock followed by a large concourse of mourning friends and relatives.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our dearly beloved brother, Simon Siebert, who departed this life September 2nd, therefore be it

Resolved, that in the death of Bro. Simon Siebert, Kehl Lodge No. 1621 F. & L. U. has lost one of its most earnest and zealous members and officers, as assistant lecturer, but he has only gone to the Grand Lodge above to await the coming of those left to mourn his loss.

That we tender heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing family in this sad hour of their bereavement and "may He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb guide and protect his little son and daughters."

That we must ever be mindful of the summons to call us to the same Grand Lodge to which our brother has entered and be ready and waiting to secure it.

That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, that our charter be draped in mourning and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and spread upon our records, and that a copy be sent to each county paper for publication.

Wm. E. H. FRANK SPRALL, Committee.

GEO. GRABER.

"A. F. By, J. P."

A. P. By, formerly of this vicinity but now a shining light in St. Genevieve county, was in Farmington Thursday morning. Mr. By is the choice of a number of Union township Democrats for J. P., and his name will be on the tickets.

When asked this morning if he was really in politics and a candidate, Mr. By said: "Well, a fellow'd be a fool if he'd see a chance to better himself and not take it, wouldn't he? I've been after me to run ever since I've been down there, and I'm going to win."

The rumor, started by some envious fellow-Democrat, that Mr. By can neither read nor write is maliciously false. He can do both with ease.—[Farmington Democrat.]

Licensed to Wed.

Since our last issue the following parties obtained marriage licenses: David N. Hogenmiller and Theresa Weiler of Weingarten.

Charles Kechn of St. Genevieve and Lena Brown of Zell.

Anton Kuehner and Mary Magdalena Glasser of Lawrenceton.

Electronary and Literary Entertainment.

The Abernathy Bros. of this place will give a grand Electronary and Literary Entertainment at Baker's Hall in Prairie du Rocher, Ill., on Saturday evening, September 27th. Admission, 25 cents; children under 10 years of age, 15 cents.

Subscribers who are in arrears to the FAIR PLAY will please come forward and settle their accounts.

About a year ago August L. Weiss, an individual between fifty and sixty years of age, applied at the Recorder's Office in this city for license to wed Miss Castled of Annapolis. The ceremony was performed, the certificate returned, and nothing more was heard of the marriage until a few months since when Miss Castled, that had been married, returned to her home in Annapolis, Md., and learned that she had been married to a man who was not August L. Weiss.

She had since learned that he had a wife and four children living in St. Genevieve county at the time she married him. The authorities have been on the lookout for Weiss ever since, but secured no trace of him until a short time ago, when they learned he had been seen around the inmates in St. Genevieve. Accordingly, Constable Patton and Deputy Woodson last Friday started for St. Genevieve and in due time arrived at the place where Weiss was reported to be stopping. He was there, too, and it was only after considerable trouble and difficulty, that the officers secured their man and brought him back to fronton.

Weiss was living with his married son and his two or three other grown children in the vicinity. He has not been living with wife No. 1 for a number of years, but has never obtained a divorce. When taken Weiss declared he was not the party wanted, but wife No. 2 arrived from Annapolis Monday and fully identified the prisoner as the man she had married. He will be held for the October term of the Circuit Court on the charge of bigamy.—[Fronton Register.]

We were informed this week that some person unknown has been killing deer in the hills about eight miles north of this city. Our informant tells us that the hides are taken and the meat left to spoil. According to the new game law the time for killing deer is from October 1st to February 1st, and any person violating this law is subject to a heavy fine.

If you are in need of a good watch or clock and want BOTTOM FIGURES, do not fail to call and see the well selected stock and learn prices at J. KOETTING'S.

J. L. BOYER sells BEST QUALITY Louisville Cement at $1.50 per barrel.

Misses Frances and Minnie Biel and Miss Annie Cox departed for St. Louis last Thursday morning to visit the Exposition.

At Chas. H. Biel's you can obtain the best and cheapest bargains in dress goods, groceries, cutlery etc. Give him call.

Remember the Weingarten Picnic—Saturday next, September 27th.

WANTED:—Corn, at the highest market price, at MRS. J. FALK & SON'S.

Mrs. D. L. Whelan and children of Moberly, Mo., are visiting relatives and friends in St. Genevieve.

Miss Emma LeCompte left last night on a visit to friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. L. Kempf of St. Louis is spending this week in our city.

Rev. Father Shaw of Farmington visited our city this week.

Mrs. Edward A. Rozier visited Prairie du Rocher, Ill., this week.

JONCA.

Editor Fair Play:—I noticed a piece of personality in the Herald last week intended as a personal thrust at me and signed by "Lotto," in answer to which I wish to make a few remarks. When a man gets upon his ear and kicks before he is spurred, and uses my name simply to gratify his ambition, I think it is my duty to tell the people just what kind of an ignominious he is, though I shall not use his name as he did mine, only his signature, "Lotto." We are made to believe by his senseless scribbles that he has been whipped by some party lash, a thing that he might get again if he isn't more careful how he personates. Just to think that he would set out to expose my name with his brains is what surprises me. But if you will allow me space in your paper I will get through with him. He says that I am sick of the F. & L. U. ticket, which is untrue, but he is sick of seeing "Stranger" and "Young Democrat" getting so close after those candidates who are on the ticket and he must be one of them. Yet he even asks me to reform as "Pat Rooney" did. I wonder if he thinks I am such a man as "Pat"? If so, he is mistaken and I hope there is no one else in this county thick-headed enough to think so. "Pat Rooney" reformed in order to get on your ticket; he thought that he would stand a chance to get an office, but he does not; he stands a good chance of being defeated.

But as there is a black sheep in every flock "Stranger" will round the black sheep in the Vance family, says "Lotto." Not at all. A black sheep would be as hard to find in the Vance family as a white one would in the family to which you belong. Now, as you have gone so far as to call me a black sheep, I will ask you to get down to hard thinking, be honest, and tell the people your relations to the African race. Will you do this, "Lotto"?

We know you can't help it any more than you can help having a big white eye. Pretty rough, but turn over once more. Are you not bound to believe that if the black sheep and black people were sent South that you would be in the midst? Of course you are and then "Stranger" will be left in the middle. Let me give you a piece of advice. If you want to write and dispute with "Stranger" you are at liberty to do so, but you had better leave the name of John D. Vance out of your articles. You have no right to use my name, neither has the editor of the Herald that right. Attend to this at once, gentlemen, or John D. Vance will attend to it for you. Having done this simply because I am not a good brother Republican of his. At the end of this article will be seen the name, "STRANGER" and that is all "Lotto" or that editor have any right to use when answering articles bearing such signatures.

Now, I must say a few words to that childish "Old Democrat" of New Orleansburg. He says that I am no farmer and can feel no sympathy with the Farmers' Ticket, but he is mistaken. I take great interest in the Farmers' ticket, but have no sympathy for the F. & L. U. ticket. That is their own ticket and not the Farmers' ticket, and they should all vote the ticket, and if "Old Democrat" is a farmer he will vote the Democratic ticket this fall. In another place he says "Stranger" is a single man. Is there anything wrong in that? I would much rather be a single man, yes, even a bachelor, than to be a married man and as poor a farmer as "Old Democrat." He is not a Democrat, but a Republican or mugwump. He also says something about me carrying the Union vote in my pocket. That is just what I have been saying all the time. I agree with him when he says that the F. & L. U. vote will be very small in this county. No, I will not get the chance to carry the tail part of your union in my pocket for you will be like the traveler who was lost. He ran short of provisions and would have starved had it not been for his little dog. He cut the dog's tail off, cooked it and ate the meat and gave the dog the bone. So will we take the meat from your ticket and give you the bone—defeat.

"Lotto's" race is nearly run. With work unfinished he is done; But all is over and over now. Will he engage in such a war. For he was called down gentle muse And fatally wounded by the news September 17, 1890. STRANGER

BLOOMSDALE.

Too much rain. Wm. J. Boyer is on the sick list this week.

Died, on Saturday, Sept. 13, 1890, at this place, August, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaRose, aged 3 years.

Jos. Bader left here for St. Genevieve Tuesday afternoon and returned the same evening at 7 o'clock.

Julius Charleville lost a mare valued at $100 this week.

Simon and Octave Boyer are making molasses this week.

Dr. Herman of Zell visited Dr. Hertich at this place Wednesday.

Mr. Clem Drury visited St. Genevieve Wednesday.

Sept. 18, 1890. A. P.

Considerable sickness at present.

Died, on Saturday, September 13, August, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaRose, aged about 3 years.

Frank Babb passed through our town Sunday on his way to Lawrenceton.

Voters, please take notice of "Spotter's" communication in the Herald of the 6th inst. It will give you an idea of "Pat Rooney's" politics.

A certain man running for office on the F. & L. U. ticket denies being "Pat Rooney," but we know better.

We predicted just right when we said the F. & L. U. would lose some of their members. This means more straws out of "Pat's" broom.

Sept. 18, 1890. YOUNG DEMOCRAT.

MINNITH.

C. C. Robertson visited his mother in the Cottonwoods last Sunday.
